

United States District Court
District of New Mexico

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

v.

LUCIANO GARICA,

ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING
PROBATION REVOCATION HEARING

Case Number: CR 17-2242 MV

In accordance with the Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(a)(6) and 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(1), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending the final revocation hearing in this case.

Findings of Fact

- (1) The defendant is held in custody for violating probation or supervised release. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(a)(1).
- (2) The Court held a preliminary hearing and found probable cause for some or all of allegations of violation of probation or supervised release OR a preliminary hearing was waived by the defendant. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(b)(1)(A).
- (3) At the detention hearing, the defendant did not establish, nor did the court find, by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant will not flee or pose a danger to any other person or to the community if released under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(b) (personal recognizance or unsecured appearance bond) or (c) (release on conditions) pending further proceedings. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(a)(6); 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(1).
- (4) Additional findings or explanations: Defendant cut off his GPS on March 24, 2024. According to the probation officer, defendant's mother would not let defendant in her home on March 24 because defendant was drunk. Defendant never returned back to his mother's residence, and defendant would not answer his probation officer's calls, nor did he turn himself in. Defendant's whereabouts were unknown until he was arrested on April 29, 2024. See Doc. 201.

ORDER OF DETENTION

Therefore, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(a)(6), the defendant shall be and is ordered detained pending a revocation hearing.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility pending a revocation hearing. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
